BILL & TED'S

excellent comic book™

PAY NO ATTENTION TO THE AD
BELOW!

BUSTER NEEDS YOUR HELP TO SAVE BABS FROM MONTANA MAX BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE.

Acme Acres is in trouble to the max. That bratty billionaire has captured Babs Bunny. So Buster's got to get hopping on a wild rescue romp!

Luckily he's got the help of his kooky pals Dizzy Devil, Furrball and Plucky Duck. And how! Dizzy Devil spins himself silly to break through rock solid walls. Furrball climbs straight up walls. And Plucky swims and glides through the air like a... duck. Along with Buster's powerful bounce, Monty will be toast!

Maybe. Six hairy scary levels show you a gazillion ways that Monty will try to trip you up. He's hired a gang of goofballs gone bad to greet you, like the ever clever Roderick Rat, iron-pumping Arnold the Pitbull and hug-happy Elmyra. If that weren't enough, you've got to beat the clock as you struggle through haunted forests, creepy pirate ships, secret chambers and finally Monty's Mansion.

The Toonsters need your help now. So "Toon" up your NES™ and let Montana Max know who's boss!

Assemble a landing party, scan for alien life, visit distant planets and collect dilithium crystals. Use your phasers and tricorders throughout this voyage, identifying the most likely to encounter bizarre alien life forms, and even the notorious Harry Mudd. You'll also need the mind of a Vulcan to solve perplexing problems. But whether or not you live long and prosper will remain a doubt until you have been in time and the way to saving a lost civilization, confront the Romulans, search the Nexus Zone, and safely return to Federation Space.

Navigate the USS Enterprise through asteroid fields. Throttle, warp, swarms of Klingon Warships and cloaking Romulan vessels. Use your captain's instinct to adjust ship speed and shield and phaser strength. When you beam down to unknown planets, your tricorder will help you find weapons and analyze alien objects. Contact your crew with your communicator and be sure to set your phasers for full effect. Assuming you manage to disassemble the Disrupter head straight down the Doomsday Machine's throat. If you don't, there won't be anywhere to boldly go.

STAN'S SOAPBOX

Hi, Heroes,

Here's indisputable proof that we really read the letters you send, and that your suggestions are important to us! During the past year, I've gotten tons of mail about the Spider-Man strip which appears in more than 500 papers daily and Sunday. You know what most of the writers kept demanding? They insisted that we use other Marvel characters as guest stars! And here's the proof I promised: If you pick up any of those 500 plus newspapers right now, you'll witness the suspenseful climax of Spidey's challenge to Dr. Doom! That's right, believer, I said Dr. Doom! But the menacing monarch of Latveria is only the first of a whole line of Marvel guest stars coming up in Spidey's newspaper strip, in response to your requests! In just another few weeks, our amazin' arachnid's next major battle will bring him face to face with none other than everyone's favorite master of the mystic arts, the weird but wonderful Dr. Strangel! And that's just for starters! So never let it be said that you, the mighty Marvel reader, don't snap your fingers and make us hop! Hey, by the way, if there are any special guest stars you'd like to see in any upcoming strips, just send your suggestion directly to the editor of your local newspaper. He'll tabulate your votes and send us the results — and it'll give me more time to write the stories instead of opening a zillion envelopes! And if, through some grievous oversight or monumental error, your local newspaper isn't carrying Spidey's daily and Sunday episodes, just write the editor a letter telling how you feel about being deprived of some of Spidey's most offbeat adventures, especially since ol' webhead's finally going gung-ho with a pandemonious plethora of the world's greatest stars! But that's enough homework for you for now. So, till next ish, have the happiest of New Years and, wherever you go, whatever you do — think Marvel!

Excelsior!

Stan Lee

What? January already? We haven't finished breaking all our resolutions from last year yet! It seems you just can't go 365 days without another year passing by.

One thing you won't want to pass by is GROO THE WANDERER, the hilarious barbarian comic that reminds us just how funny cheese dip is. Starting with issue #87, GROO will only be available in comics specialty shops and by subscription. GROO-creator Sergio Aragones (not to be confused with fashion designer Sergio Valenti) was concerned that his loyal newsstand readers wouldn't be able to find GROO, so he asked us to mention it here on the page. That's why Sergio did that GROO illustration for the BP page last month, although we forgot to tell you why till this month! Guess we committed a GROO-ism! That's a little inside joke for readers of GROO. And if you're not a reader of GROO, you should be! It features some of the funniest barbarian hi-jinx since the time Conan crashed one of those rich high-society dinner parties!

The Avengers won't be throwing any parties for a while — not since we held the Avengers summit in upstate New York last September. This was a one-day out-of-office retreat by the writers and editors of all the Avengers titles to plot out the massive 19-part extravaganza, Operation: Galactic Storm, beginning this month. (It would have run 20 parts, but we cut out one of the fight scenes.) This is an epic outer space saga featuring a war between the Kree and the Sh'iar, which will cross over into both Avengers books, plus THOR, CAPTAIN AMERICA, QUASAR, WONDER MAN, IRON MAN, and BARBIE FASHION. (Just kidding about that last one — we wanted to see if you were paying attention.)

Among those present at the retreat: editors Tom DeFalco, Mark Gruenwald, Ralph Macchio, Bob Harras, Nel Yomtov, Kelly Corvese, and Fabian Nicieza, WONDER MAN writer Gerard Jones, AVENGERS WEST COAST chronicler Roy Thomas, and brand-new IRON MAN scribe Len Kaminski. (None of the above-named Marveloids is to be confused with funnyman Nipsey Russell.) Together, these men have concocted a storyline so vast in scope, so complex in theme, so convex in comparison to a flat plane, that it makes GONE WITH THE WIND look like an epic.

Another truly monumental event occurred here at mighty Marvel recently, as legendary inker Joe Sinnott (not to be confused with Frank Sinatra) celebrated his 65th birthday. About thirty of Joe's closest friends and biggest fans got together for a big combination semi-retirement/semi-birthday bash. Photos of the event appear in this month's MARVEL AGE

MAGAZINE, along with an in-depth interview with Joe "Boy, have I got a lot of stories to tell" Sinnott himself. We'd like to wish Joe all the best. He's truly one of the greats. In fact, even though he's semi-retired we think it would be a sin-not to give him more work. (Okay, so we're allowed one bad joke per page.)

We interrupt this Bullpen Page for a special request from our Submissions Department. If you have work you would like to submit to Marvel, PLEASE DO NOT CALL US. Any aspiring writers and artists are requested to MAIL in their work to us with a self-addressed, stamped envelope. We will then look over your work and give you a response. The phones have just been ringing off the floors lately, and we've been so busy taking calls, we haven't had time to look over your work! If you're really good, SHOW us, don't TELL us how good you are.

We now return you to your regularly scheduled Bullpen Page, already in progress.

... and so DeFalco said, "Yeah, I'll believe that — when NIGHT NURSE gets her own book again!"

One guy who's got something better than his own book is Mike Lackey (not to be confused with Bob Mackie, the guy who used to design the dresses on the old Carol Burnett show). Mike, as you'll recall, was famous for having the smallest desk here at Marvel. Well, people can no longer scoff at Mike and say his is smaller than everyone else's, as he now has an actual, honest to gosh, sturdy enough to put his feet up on desk! Mike now shares an office with Kelly Corvese (not to be confused with Telly Savalas), while still serving as MARVEL AGE assistant editor to Renee Witterstaetter (not to be confused with our kindergarten teacher, Mrs. Widderstrom).

We're running short on space, so in passing, we'll note that the lovely and talented executive editor Bob Budiansky (not to be confused with Buddy Hackett) recently got married to the lovelier and more talented Angela Goodman, and that HULK-writer Peter David (not to be confused with the brilliant novelist David Peters) and his wife, non-HULK-writer Myra David, recently gave birth to a little mermaid named Ariel. Congratulations, all!

In closing, we would like to leave you with our foremost New Year's resolution. We resolve that this year, mighty Marvel will not resort to any cheap gimmicks to sell our books. We will not do any multiple covers, glow-in-the-dark covers, 3-D covers, hologram covers, embossed covers, peanut butter and jelly covers, or any tacky promotional tricks to sell our ... What's that? You folks like all those special format covers? Then forget the resolution — no sooner made than broken!

Hey, Bill & Ted!

WRITE TO: HEY, BILL & TED! c/o
MARVEL ENTERTAINMENT GROUP
387 PARK AVE. S. NY, NY 10016

Welcome, excellent readers, to another wacky, fun-filled BILL & TED letters page! Due to a special request (actually, an incessant nagging), our friend the Grim Reaper will be selecting and answering the mail this month. Who knows, maybe he'll do a decent job! NOT!

So now, heereeeeee's Death!

Er...thank you. Here is our first correspondent...

Dear BILL & TED,

I'm writing to compliment you on your most triumphant new comic book. I was in the 7-Eleven getting a Slurpee when I saw it. The comic I was looking for. Also, at the same time I saw SILVER SURFER #60. I had to act fast. I didn't have enough money to purchase them both so I picked up BILL & TED, got my Slurpee and headed home. So until Bill & Ted get killed again, Make Mine Marvel.

Joshua Johnson
Petaluma, CA

A comic book and a Slurpee...truly the best this miserable dimension has to offer...

Hi,

I've been a fan of Bill & Ted since I saw their first movie a couple of years ago. I love the actors who play them in the movies. I love their cereal, I'd die (or kill!) for a Ted doll, and I'm glad to see someone had the taste to produce such an excellent comic based on them.

Suzanne Harrell
Waverly, VA

So you'd die (or kill) for a Ted doll? We must talk...

Dear BILL & TED,

What can I say but the best! The Grim Reaper is the best. I can't wait to buy the figure.

How did Bill & Ted meet Death?

Derrick Kidgore
Linden, NJ

They met me like most people meet me...they died. Nice name, by the way.

Dear BILL & TED,

I think you guys are totally cool dudes! I have an awesome scrapbook of you two dudes! I hope you guys catch Death!

Chris Luna
Hamlet, IA

If they do not catch me, I will catch them, Chris...they owe me a rematch! And I've been practicing my Monopoly! I can consistently beat Tsedalkah, the goddess of charity!

Dear BILL & TED,

I think it's an excellent idea to make a BILL & TED comic book! I just finished reading issue number one. It is the best comic book that I've read in a long time.

How will the marriage of Bill & Ted and the babes work out? Until the next issue, be excellent to each other and party on, dudes!

Alex Perry
(Address withheld by request)

I do not remember much of what happened in issue #1, Alex. I was...distracted. As for Bill & Ted and Joanna & Elizabeth...things work out, but eventually they all die.

Yo Dudes,

What's up, most non-heinous dudes? Your first issue was most excellent and should become a most triumphant series!

Evan Dorkin ain't no dork, and draws you dudes most studular! Yo, my favorite compadre of you guys is the big D. I also believe that your comic is quite educational for the young mind, and teaches children about history...NOT!

Say yo to Rufus and Death for me, kiss those badacious babes for me, and party on, dudes! Station!

Stevie Flood
Brandon, VT

You have excellent taste, Stevie. I shall endeavor to remember that...

Hey BILL & TEDI

You two are my favorite cartoon characters. How old are you two Wyld Stallyns? I am 11. I am a girl. I watched your movie. I loved it. Tell Rufus I said hi. Well, gotta go. Write me back. Send me a picture of both of you.

Susan Lively
Whitesville, WV

I do not like your name.

Dudes—

What's chillin'? We just had to write and tell you what a most triumphant comic this is. Quite a most atypical story. Most esteemed!

Like our excellent buds, Bill S. Preston, Esq. and Ted "Theodore" Logan, we are quite the metalheads. We bagged the first copy as well as your adaptation of the movie numero dos.

We love how those most uncool miscreants Linus (any relation to the Linus of Peanuts fame?) and Geoffrey got bagged. Also, your rendition of the Grim Reaper was quite the phantasmagoric.

We'd also like to give you our congratulations on having two of our favorite characters in issue #1. Socrates and Billy the Kid can trash our house anytime. Any chance that there'll be a nude pinup of Missy/Mom?

Just asking.

Jim E. McLaughlin III
Mike "Micheal" Gath

Merimack NH 03054

Please, I am blushing a bright white...

NEXT MONTH:

Bill & Ted are captured by the Chronological Order and placed on trial for disruption of the timestream! Bogus! Denomolos plots his escape attempt from Hell! Heinous! Station and Rufus are nowhere to be found! Egregious!

Oh, and Death tries once again to beat Bill & Ted, this time at Monopoly. Most threatening...NOT!

Hey, I heard that! That is not funny! When will I, the very personification of mortality, be granted the respect and, yes, fear that I—

—no, stay back! Back! No Melvins—
—OOOOOOOMPH!
